Italian: Second Language ATAR course Practical (oral) examination

This document contains general advice to teachers, candidates and parents on the Italian: Second Language ATAR course Practical (oral) examination.

Students who are enrolled in a Year 12 ATAR course pair of units are required to sit both the practical and written ATAR course examinations. There are no exemptions and if candidates fail to sit and do not have an approved sickness/misadventure claim then the grades for the course units will not contribute to any of the WACE requirements.

The practical (oral) examination for Italian: Second Language will be held during the period from Saturday, 12 October to Sunday, 20 October 2019 (weekends included) at metropolitan locations. Candidates must be available to complete their practical (oral) examination during this time. A Personalised practical examination timetable (Appendix 1) for each candidate will be made available from Thursday, 12 September 2019 for schools/providers to download via SIRS and for students to download via the School Curriculum and Standards Authority (the Authority) student portal. Country candidates are expected to take their practical (oral) examination via telephone or may choose to travel to the examination centre at their own cost.

For Italian: Second Language, the ATAR course examination weightings are:

- Written examination 70%
- Practical (oral) examination 30%

1. Reporting achievement

Teachers are responsible for ensuring the practical (oral) examination requirements are met and making sure candidates are adequately prepared. Teachers must ensure they are using the current syllabus. Any further advice on matters related to the syllabus or assessment will be published in the 11to12 Circular, which is available on the Authority website at <http://www.scsa.wa.edu.au/publications/circular-ecircular>.

Teachers should also refer to the ATAR course examination information published in Section 6 of the WACE Manual 2019, which is available on the Authority website at <http://www.scsa.wa.edu.au/publications/wace-manual>.

For all ATAR courses with a practical examination, for the pair of units, schools are required to submit to the Authority a:

- course mark out of 100 (weighted for each component)
- mark out of 100 for the written component
- mark out of 100 for the practical component
- grade for the completed pair of units.

2. Provisions for sickness/misadventure

Consideration may be given to candidates (except non-school candidates) who believe their performance in a practical examination may have been affected by an unexpected sickness, or unforeseen event beyond their control, close to or during the examination. Such candidates may apply for sickness/misadventure consideration. Application is made by the candidate by the prescribed date using the form available in schools or from the Authority website at <http://www.scsa.wa.edu.au/forms/forms>.

3. Principles of external assessment

The marking process preserves the anonymity of the candidate and the candidate's school. This requires that the candidate is identified only by their WA student number.

Markers apply a consistent standard to assess the candidate's work. This requires:

- a marking key for the practical (oral) examination
- attendance at a marker training meeting prior to the commencement of marking
- trial marking of sample oral recordings to ensure a common understanding of the marking key
- the practical (oral) examination to be marked independently by two markers who then reconcile any differences between them
- the chief marker to ensure consistency throughout the marking by monitoring the marking process and reconciling significant differences where necessary.

4. Criteria for marking

Practical (oral) performance is assessed on what a candidate is able to demonstrate through each part of the interview. The Practical (oral) marking key 2019, published on the Authority website, identifies the assessment criteria suited to each part of the interview task and describes levels of candidate performance for each criterion. Therefore, students are advised to familiarise themselves with the marking key as preparation for their performance in the examination. For Part C of the interview, the candidate is strongly advised to participate in a conversation with the marker, rather than attempt to recite a prepared response that resembles a monologue. In the interest of the candidate, such monologues will be interrupted by the marker at an appropriate point.

A numerical scale is used to assess candidate performance in the practical (oral) examination. All candidates are examined against the following criteria:

- comprehension
- response (relevance and depth of information)
- language range (vocabulary and grammar)
- language accuracy (grammar)
- speech (fluency and articulation).

5. Marking procedure

Each candidate's practical (oral) examination is marked independently by two markers. One marker conducts the interview while the second marker sits in the background and makes notes on the candidate's performance. An audio recording of each candidate's performance is made. The audio recordings are used to ensure comparability between markers.

6. Examination procedure

On the day of the practical (oral) examination, the candidate must bring their Personalised practical examination timetable.

The candidate may bring one combined print dictionary (one Italian/English and English/Italian dictionary) or two separate print dictionaries (one Italian/English dictionary and one English/Italian dictionary). Dictionaries must not contain any notes or other marks. No electronic dictionaries are allowed.

If a candidate is found with any unauthorised materials during the examination, they will be referred to the Breach of Examination Rules committee.

The candidate must ensure that nothing they carry or wear can identify either them, their school, club or achievements. If this does occur, the candidate will be referred to the Breach of Examination Rules committee.

The candidate is required to report to a supervisor at the examination centre at the scheduled reporting time. This reporting time is 20 minutes before the scheduled examination time. The scheduled examination time is the time at which the candidate begins their preparation. The practical (oral) examination includes both the preparation time and interview.

A candidate who has not reported to a supervisor once their scheduled examination time has commenced will not be admitted to the practical (oral) examination and the examination cannot be rescheduled.

At the scheduled reporting time, the candidate reports to the registration desk with their Personalised practical examination timetable. Prior to the scheduled examination time, a supervisor directs the candidate to leave any unauthorised materials at the registration desk. The supervisor accepts no responsibility for these materials. The supervisor takes the candidate to a preparation room. There may be more than one candidate being supervised in the preparation room.

At the commencement of the scheduled examination time, a supervisor gives the candidate a preparation booklet, and the candidate chooses one stimulus from a choice of two. The candidate must not write on or mark the stimulus. During the preparation time, the candidate prepares for the interview by making notes in their preparation booklet and, if they wish, by referring to their dictionary.

The candidate must leave the examination area once they have completed their examination, and must not have contact with candidates waiting to be examined, or teachers, or other parties who are seeking feedback from the examination until all the examinations have concluded. Failure to do so may result in a breach of examination rules.

7. Breach of examination rules

An alleged breach of examination rules is referred to the Breach of Examination Rules committee. Further information related to breach of examination (malpractice) can be found at <http://www.scsa.wa.edu.au/publications/year-12-information>.

A breach of one of these rules can result in cancellation of a part or all of the practical raw examination mark.

8. Structure of the examination

Examination	Duration
Part A: Viewing and preparation of stimulus	15 minutes
Part B: Discussion of stimulus	approximately 4 minutes
Part C: Conversation	approximately 8 minutes

9. Conduct of the practical (oral) examination

Part A: Viewing and preparation of stimulus (15 minutes)

At the start of the preparation time the candidate is handed two stimulus items by the supervisor. Each stimulus has an image, or set of images, a related statement and a focus question in Italian related to topics of Unit 3 or Unit 4. The candidate chooses one stimulus and places the remaining one in front of them on their table.

During the preparation time the candidate prepares responses to the stimulus and makes notes in the preparation booklet provided. These notes may be taken into the interview room and may be referred to during Part B of the examination; however, the candidate should ensure that they do not read from the notes. The candidate may refer to a dictionary during the preparation time but not during the examination.

Before leaving the preparation room the candidate hands the stimulus to the supervisor. The candidate takes their preparation booklet into the interview room.

The candidate also takes all their belongings, including dictionaries, with them to the interview room and is instructed where to place them for the duration of the interview.

Part B: Discussion of stimulus (approximately 4 minutes)

When the candidate enters the interview room, the marker begins with a greeting to the candidate in Italian and then asks them in English to state their WA student number. The candidate reads out their number in English.

Marker: Buongiorno. Come stai?

Candidate: Buongiorno. Non c'è male grazie.

Marker: I am your interviewer for the Italian: Second Language Practical (oral) examination today. Can you read to me your WA student number in English please?

Candidate: Yes, my number is ...

Marker: Thank you. I'll repeat that number (repeats number to confirm).

The marker asks the candidate a question to confirm the chosen stimulus. The marker then reads the statement provided with the stimulus and asks the focus question provided as a prompt to initiate discussion:

Marker: Hai scelto un'immagine?

Candidate: Sì. Ho scelto numero 12.

Marker: Allora, ecco la domanda ... (reads the statement and question from the stimulus).

The candidate responds to the question by talking in Italian about the stimulus and explaining how it relates to the topics of Unit 3 or Unit 4.

The marker asks questions about the stimulus that provide the candidate with the opportunity to express ideas and opinions. The candidate uses their responses to support the conversation and should also aim to display a flexible use of a range of linguistic structures and vocabulary during this time.

At the end of Part B, the marker asks the candidate whether they have any more to add to the discussion and then asks the candidate for their preparation booklet.

Marker: Vuoi dire altro?

or

Si ...

Marker: Grazie. Posso avere il tuo libretto di preparazione, per favore?

Part C: Conversation (approximately 8 minutes)

In Part C, the candidate participates in a conversation in Italian with the marker drawing on a range of topics from Unit 3 and Unit 4.

The marker initiates Part C of the examination, for example:

Marker: Adesso passiamo alla conversazione. Va bene? Allora, quest'anno quali sono i temi che hai studiato nel corso d'italiano?

In response the candidate nominates three topics, including one from Unit 3 and one from Unit 4. The topics nominated for discussion must not include the topic discussed during Part B of the examination.

The marker asks questions to encourage the candidate to speak about the three topics nominated. The number of questions covered by the examination is not predetermined. However, the candidate can expect that the questions the marker asks may relate to a previous response made by the candidate or introduce the next topic. The range and depth of questions asked are sufficient to allow an accurate assessment of the candidate's linguistic ability. The candidate uses their responses to demonstrate their Italian oral communication skills and understandings of the topics of each of the course units.

At the end of Part C, the marker stands, thanks the candidate and states that the examination has concluded.

Marker: Senti, per oggi abbiamo finito. Grazie e arrivederci.
